Event Overview

From print to in-person

THE MIDWEST MEET-UP YOU'VE BEEN LOOKING FOR.

Overview:

The first annual HPJ-Live event is August 6-8, 2025 in Wichita, KS at the Century II Performing Arts & Convention Center. This event combines the popular U-Events into a multi-day learning experience and tradeshow you won't want to miss.

Profile:

Hosted by High Plains Journal - your trusted ag news source for 75 years - farmers, ranchers, and ag experts come together to learn from industry leaders, connect with vendors, and share experiences with colleagues and neighbor producers.

But it's more than just learning—it's about taking the next steps that drive real impact, both locally and globally.

- 99.6[%] OF PRODUCERS SAY HPJ EVENTS ARE valuable and needed
- Nearly 1,000 U-SERIES EVENT ATTENDEES IN 2024
- 18+ years OF EVENT EXPERIENCE, INCLUDING PUTTING ON MORE THAN 100 live events
- EXPECTING 100+ exhibitors and vendors IN 2025
- Over 20+ hours of active Tradeshow and networking time

If you enjoy our print and digital content, HPJ Live is an event you won't want to miss.

Wichita, KS, is both the largest and most centrally located city in the state. In any direction there is access and reach to agri-business, manufacturing, small grains, row crops, cover crops, commercial cattle, and more, making it a thriving hub for the High Plains Journal Region.

Since its early days, Wichita has continuously evolved into a vibrant, multicultural city.
